Councilmember Katrina Minton-Davis Receives Certificate of Municipal Leadership

Bonney Lake, WA – Katrina Minton-Davis, Councilmember of the City of Bonney Lake was recently awarded the Certificate of Municipal Leadership (CML) from the Association of Washington Cities. To date, Councilmember Minton-Davis has participated in 30 hours of government leadership training to earn this distinction and contributed valuable service to the community. The CML program is designed to enhance the ability of elected city officials by providing knowledge and skills in the roles, responsibilities and legal requirements of city councilmembers; public sector resource management, community planning and development; and effective local leadership.

Councilmember Minton-Davis started her term as a councilmember for the City of Bonney Lake in January 2012 and serves as a member of the City Council's Economic Development Committee. Before election to the city council, she served as the Vice-Chair of the City's Planning Commission.
